After you complete your questionnaire, but before submitting, you must save your questionnaire as a PDF file and give it a new name to which you will append your personal name and the election year as specified below.

General Form:

- If you were running for a suburban mayor’s office, your downloaded file (doc) name would be: Mayor_SUB_f
- You must save-as a PDF file (.pdf) and replace the “f” part of the downloaded file name with your last and first name and add the election year.
- Use capitals for the first letter of your last and first name and lowercase for the rest.

Specific Example:

- Suburban Mayor candidate Elizabeth Rias would rename the Mayor_SUB_f file to: Mayor_SUB_RiasElizabeth2019

My training at UIC provided me the social-justice framework for improving our school communities and for building a city that respects all and serves all. As a teacher, I serve all of my students to benefit the classroom community- I do not and cannot prioritize or favor only certain people, but must seek to build a community that uplifts all, not just those who are conventionally successful. Frankly, my ability to engage and listen and respect all is my greatest asset. I have put it to good use as a teacher and will do the same serving the people of my ward and of my city. I bring a sharp, inquisitive mind, a compassionate heart, an intense energy, and a spirit of seeking to hear and understand people. Once voters engage with me, they support me. I am asking for your support so that I may reach all of the voters. • b) Most important to me about holding public office is to be able to serve people of all walks of life with a sense of true compassion and search for understanding, while all the while bringing creative solutions to our financial and social challenges. Aldermanic Priorities

Essay
• Affordability; Ward Services and in-person, hands-on engagement; Education; Public safety	What are your top priorities for the Ward?
• Slow, steady and down to earth is what we need in our area. We have been developing at such a break-neck pace that long-time residents - renters and owners alike - cannot keep up with the market changes. As we develop luxury establishments (commercial or residential) we incentivize wealthier people to move into our ward, and cause displacement of poor and middle-class residents. We need to encourage people of all economic backgrounds to live in our area and send their children to our schools.	What is your long-range plan for development of the ward?
• Participatory budgeting is a good start, but it doesn't go far enough. There are many people - seniors, and others - who aren't likely to log on and vote for projects. We need to make sure we are reaching every household in our planning process. We can do this by sending paper newsletters and surveys to households that are not on the email list and sending people out to homes that do not reply to surveys.	How will you involve ward residents in planning?
• I will be very engaged.	How will you work with community groups and residents on City matters?

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I don't imagine that one can do this job properly and hold outside employment. I would commit to 40 hours a week minimum performing aldermanic duties. I would like to continue to teach part-time, but realistically, imagine I would need to devote myself to my ward office and city council obligations. 	Do you intend to hold employment other than alderman? If so, what employment do you intend to hold and how will you divide your time between your aldermanic duties and your other occupation (please note the minimum hours per week you will spend performing your aldermanic duties)?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I would like to include a hybrid of full- and part-time workers to engage people with various backgrounds in serving our community. They will be of diversified backgrounds, comprised of long-time residents, public planning experts, and others who can perform various aspects of the job of serving the public. They will be paid for out of our budget but I will also employ volunteers wherever possible. Our office would be open regularly, with late afternoon and evening hours, for a total of 40-45 hours a week. 	Please describe your service office staffing plan, including the number of staff, full and part time, how you will pay for them, and the number of hours per week that your service office will be open.

Thank you for your participation!
